“We shall begin by launching the most spectacular peace movement on record. There will be electrifying overtures and unheard-of concessions. The capitalist countries, stupid and decadent, will rejoice to cooperate in their own destruction. They will leap at another chance to be friends. As soon as their guard is down, we shall smash them with our clenched fist.”

From the Aga Khan to WE, Trudeau still can't seem to grasp reality

Any normal human being could have told the prime minister that awarding a giant contract to such an organization would set off alarm bells. And no normal human being would be anything but further perplexed by the PMO's efforts at damage control: first insisting only the WE Charity was capable of administering the program, then shortly thereafter cancelling the contract and handing it to the civil service. While admitting no impropriety, Trudeau then suggested WE would have done a better job. That's just utterly bizarre.

When will Canada say "No!" to Huawei?

On Tuesday, Britain banned the purchase of any new 5G equipment from the Chinese telecom giant Huawei and ordered all Huawei gear stripped from Britain's networks by 2027. They joined the U.S., Australia, and New Zealand in freezing out Huawei from their 5G networks, leaving Canada as the only member of the "Five Eyes" intelligence alliance that has not barred or restricted Huawei from its 5G network.

NEW YORK TIMES

Resignation Letter from Bari Weiss to The New York Times

Perhaps it was only a matter of time. After James Bennet, the editorial page director of the New York Times, resigned last month, following his publication of a mildly controversial opinion piece by a US Senator, Tom Cotton, about rioting, many speculated that his friend and ally at the paper, Bari Weiss, would follow him out the door after him. Weiss was much loathed by many of the paper's younger and more militantly 'progressive' staff. Today, Weiss announced that she is indeed leaving America's most famous publication. Her excoriating departure letter is worth quoting in full:

Bari Weiss Resignation Letter

New York Times denizens respond to Bari Weiss resignation over bullying — with more bullying

It ought to have been embarrassing for the New York Times to have a top op-ed editor resign with fiery criticism of the paper's stultifying leftism. In the news industry, it's pretty rare for anyone to resign, let alone say what the problem was. That's what happened a couple days ago, when Bari Weiss submitted her resignation to the paper, denouncing the far-left atmosphere of cancel-culture bullying, the signs of which have been pretty obvious for years. .

https://www.americanthinker.com/blog/2020/07/new\_york\_times\_denizens\_respond\_to\_bari\_weiss\_resignation\_over\_bullying\_with\_more\_bullying.html

In defence of Bari Weiss

If we are to defeat these forces of division and intolerance, more people are going to have to follow Weiss and stick their necks out. Yes, there are risks, but it's not like the consequences are as severe as they were in, say, Nazi Germany or the Stalinist Soviet Union. Some may seek to work within their institutions, while others may prefer to leave to join others, or start new organisations – what is important is that we don't let this slide by and become the new norm. There is strength in numbers, and if more say no, then it will be harder for the new elite to get its way. One way or another, more people are going to have to be like Bari and speak up.

<https://www.spiked-online.com/2020/07/17/in-defence-of-bari-weiss/>

Quitting the Times by Bruce Bawer

At least we know this: one person who most assuredly isn't a coward is Bari Weiss. Her letter is an instant classic – a key document of our time. More authoritatively than anything else I've read, it pulls back the curtain not just from the Times but from the mainstream Western news media in general. It affirms every criticism that has been made of those media by honest critics who were brought up believing in journalistic objectivity. To be sure, duplicity, flimflam, and whitewash have always been arrows in the Times' quiver.

COVID-19 UPDATES

Let's Get Busy with a Pro-life Vaccine for COVID-19

Have we been had? Unmasking the disease

The separation of communities and destruction of trade is not based on any proven science; it is based on politically-driven fear of a virus less lethal than the seasonal flu. It's to be wondered if it's only China to blame for this plague. How much do the power-hungry globalists rightly share in the senseless terror and anxiety that's dividing America?

<https://canadafreepress.com/article/have-we-been-had-unmasking-the-disease-delusion>

Muzzling the public

We have to talk about this. We cannot let mask-wearing become the 'new normal'. Masks are horrible. They're stuffy and claustrophobic. They make it hard to read people's faces. They alienate us from each other even more, hiding smiles and discouraging chit-chat. And they actually worsen the culture of fear. Masks will become moral garments, public demonstrations of decency. Not unlike in Afghanistan.

<https://www.spiked-online.com/2020/07/14/muzzling-the-public/>

FREEDOM OF SPEECH

Free speech and civil rights go hand in hand

Every civil-rights leader right up to Martin Luther King strongly supported free speech as a voice for the powerless. Today's attempt to disassociate free speech from the pursuit of civil rights rewrites history. It is always the powerless who gain the most from the freedom to speak out against their condition. And it is always they who suffer when the right to express themselves is curtailed.

BLACK LIVES MATTER

The Truth about Black Lives Matter

Black Lives Matter is a group driven by Marxist ideology and is committed to overthrowing Western society – by any means necessary. No Christian, or anyone from any other faith, should be supporting a violent communist group that wants to burn down Western Civilization and reshape it into the image of the former Soviet Union. For more, please have a look at this informative video produced by our friends at Church Militant.

<https://nyc3.digitaloceanspaces.com/churchmilitant/videos/dist/spec-2020-06-18.mp4>

A Civil Rights Movement or a Communist Inspired Terrorist Organization?

BLM supports the destruction of America, and Americans need to educate themselves very quickly before it gets completely out of hand. For those of you supporting the BLM organization; you have endorsed it and the leadership is just laughing at you. America cannot afford to capitulate and hide behind political correctness any longer. BLM is a communist organization that is terrorizing our country. Black Lives Matter rioters have attacked statues and attempted to destroy monuments across America including the monuments that memorialize the exact thing they claim to be fighting for, freedom.

Reagan's farewell speech predicted exactly what's happening today

If the bravery of the boys on Normandy is something that no more than 10% of the youth understand, whereas Black Lives Matter demonstrations are considered more important in the psyche of millions of youth, then the future is indeed bleak. Understanding history is indeed the key to the present and the future. Of course, America has some faults. But it is indeed the freest country in the history of the world. Freedom has spread in the world due to the United States more than due to any other country in the world.

RED-GREEN AXIS

Attacks on churches are the latest crimes of the Marxist insurrection

Karl Marx, the father of communism, the barbaric political system that ultimately was responsible for the deaths of 100 million people in the 20th century, particularly hated the church. He saw it as a chief obstacle to the utopia that the communist revolution was sure to usher in, which featured the State as god.

Given Marx's clear hostility to the church and BLM's Marxist roots, as well as Mao Zedong's attacks on religion in his cultural revolution in the 1960s, combined with Antifa's Maoist orientation, it's not a reach to connect the dots and come up with the likely suspects in these barbaric attacks on churches across America.

The New Abnormal is Global Socialism

As many Americans know, the U.N. and its many affiliates have managed to convince 178 countries to sign the U.N. Agenda 21 in 1992, later morphed into U.N. Agenda 2030, a document which controls every aspect of our economic and private lives through SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT and subservience to the whims of globalists, beginning with abolishing of private property and destroying the U.S., the last bastion that stands in its way.

WHITE PRIVILEGE

What Exactly Is “White Privilege” Anyway?

For some reason in the summer of 2020, every White person in America seems to be the cause of every person of color’s misfortunes. After one, single, solitary police officer kneed a convicted felon, wife abuser, drug addict, forged money launderer and local porno star George Floyd—the rest of America stands guilty of every sin since Cain murdered Abel. Every cop stands guilty of everything anyone wants to charge against him or her.

White Men Responsible For Almost All The Greatest Human Accomplishments

The biggest reason why Whites are believed to be racist is that they are far the greatest achievers in human history and they created the nations non-whites crave to inhabit. The very existence of White Men goes against the principle of equality since they are responsible for almost 100% of the greatest achievements in all the fields of human endeavor since ancient historical times. This is a big reason why White nations are earmarked for total race mixing, and why White Males are the most resented group.

CHINA

'China is far weaker than people think'

China is a major power. It is a member of the UN Security Council. It is a nuclear power. It is a dominant military power in East Asia. The question is, is it better to have constructive and cooperative relations with a country like that, or is it best to be belligerent? My line has always been that we should approach China without illusions. China is not a friend of human rights. China is not a friend of the working people. China is not anything to be admired and it is not progressive – we should be clear about that.

On Sunday evening, July 5, around 7 p.m. in Bayonne, France, a gang of so-called "young people" boarded a bus without a ticket or coronavirus masks. After the driver, a 59-year-old father of three, asked them to vacate the bus, the gang violently punched and kicked him repeatedly, leaving him brain-dead. Several unnamed "youths", who are known to the police, have been arrested in the assault. Philippe Monguillot's fellow drivers, his wife Véronique, along with thousands in the town have staged protests. Bus drivers have refused to go to work to protest the brutal attack and for the sake of their own safety.

ISRAEL

Change Is Needed at the United Nations

The Human Rights Council amplifies anti-Semitic injustices instead of objectively considering the facts. The unbalanced obsession with Israel is clear: The same UN body did not appoint a permanent rapporteur in response to the clear-cut case of Russia's illegal annexation of Crimea in 2014. Neither was such a role established to deal with the atrocities carried out by Syrian president Bashar al-Assad, who attacked his own population with chemical weapons. Furthermore, no special rapporteur action has been established to investigate the Chinese regime's forced "re-education" of the Uyghur Muslim minority that China has placed in concentration camps. These are just a few of the many human rights abuses that have gone unaddressed by this body, even while it obsesses over hypothetical rumors regarding Israel.

Begum did not help herself when she first spoke to media who had tracked her down after the Caliphate's collapse. In an interview with The Times correspondent who found her in a refugee camp in northern Syria she said that she had not been much bothered by seeing a decapitated body because she knew that the person must have been “an enemy of Islam”. That is why the case of Begum rankles. It is not just against this or that article or law; it howls out against one of the most fundamental rules of human justice: the rule that the most terrible actions should have the most terrible consequences.

UNITED STATES

Stay Angry, Not Dispirited

Like baboons showing their rears to zoogoers, the election of President Trump caused the rotting institutions of America to reveal their least attractive features. The press has engaged in nonstop lying without remorse. The premier educational institutions have revealed their Marxist colors and disdain for the sifting and winnowing of ideas that once were their reason to be. The FBI, Department of Justice, and the courts have tipped their partisanship, and to their dishonor, the ethical grounding that once made them worthy of respect.

Could America Become Like South Africa?

One of the most obvious ideas of all anti-white groups is that whites are racists and blacks are victims. This is dogma even when statistics show that whites, as in South Africa and America, are overwhelmingly the victims of black violence and not the other way round. White depravity now includes a whole panoply of invisible, implied, and even unconscious racisms. In both the US and South Africa, racial disparities in education, wealth, and even measured IQ between blacks and whites are ascribed to oppression.

Civil Rights attorney Leo Terrell is being ostracized for supporting Trump

Terrell wants whites to know they're not racist if they don't support Black Lives Matter. He doesn't support it because the group doesn't care in the slightest about actual black lives. ## Nigerian privilege

Are we to accept that this Nigerian exceptionalism is due to merit? That the Nigerian diaspora are kicking ass and taking names by their own accord? Is there some sort of reverence for education and fiscal responsibility in Nigerian households? An emphasis on a strong nuclear family with a father in the home? Decadence is a staple of the human condition, but there are times when the forces of debasement and corruption seem far more conspicuous and irreversible than at other times when they are in approximate abeyance. ## The Lies Behind The George Floyd Case

The George Floyd case became the second go-round for the national effort to ignite a race war in America. It is working, thanks to commentators and politicians who jumped on the anti-police bandwagon. This time, "Hands up, don't shoot," has been replaced by "I can't breathe." But an objective observer could conclude that he couldn't breathe because of too many drugs in his system and his delirium when facing arrest.

Since Trump was elected president, this puerile, bad-tempered behavior that characterizes all of the left have thrown a perpetual tantrum, betraying the emptiness of their agenda. Idaho congressman Russ Fulcher is targeting a racist with more African-American blood on her hands than the entire Confederate Army: Margaret Sanger. There's a longstanding maxim that states that only the complete destruction of one's enemies will suffice. Merely winning a particular battle is not enough.
