Canada Should Ban Huawei Completely & Bring Back Nortel

Canada must fully ban Huawei – not just from 5G, but from selling anything in our country. We cannot be a bunch of weak fools who let China profit from the destruction of one of our companies. And, as a symbol of our resolve, the government should partner with private industry to build up a company that will provide key aspects of our national telecommunications infrastructure, ensuring it remains in Canadian hands. That company should be called NORTEL, as a clear message that our days of being taken advantage of are over.

The prorogation of the talented Mr. Poilievre by Rex Murphy

The master of the stir-fry of the prime minister and his automatons in cabinet and on the back bench, the sharpest arrow in the quiver, was Mr. Poilievre. His forensic lacerations of Justin Trudeau on the few occasions when a mostly absentee prime minister dared the ordeal, were top quality demolitions. In every exchange, and they are all there for the viewing, it was clear who was the austere teacher, and who was the stammering tyro.

Trudeau's Worst Week

This may have been Justin Trudeau's worst week since he became prime minister — and that's saying something. The week started when Trudeau clearly fired his most qualified and experienced cabinet minister Bill Morneau, although we were told it was a resignation that had nothing to do with the giant dumpster fire inside the PMO.

Anti-Mask Protest Rocks Quebec

"We want to show our children that we have to stand up strong and stop letting pieces of our freedom be taken away. The financial health of our children will already be affected and we will leave them psychological traces," Amélie, who is a mother of three children told Le Soleil. Amélie's comments have been translated into English. "I am against the mask yes, but above all against the fear that it inflicts on us. The disease is not worth that. We are talking about compulsory vaccines, to trace us with the phones... How far will it go?"

Trudeau's 'brutal' attempt to use COVID to push his green agenda by Rex Murphy

I would wager that there is no other government in the world, democratic or otherwise, that is so intent on doing damage to one of its country's main industries as the Liberal government in Ottawa. This stance has reawakened Western unrest, worked a real cleavage in the federation and has left those who have lost work, or who are looking for work, in the oil and gas industry, demoralized and angry. It is a brutal thing to put ideology over economic security, over jobs and workers and industries; to use the COVID-19 crisis as an "opportunity" to push a predetermined green and globalist agenda.

State Broadcaster CBC Has Given Kamala Harris Nearly Four Times As Much Coverage As Leslyn Lewis

It seems CBC is giving way more coverage to Joe Biden's VP pick Kamala Harris than they are to Canadian Conservative leadership contender Dr. Leslyn Lewis. CBC forces us to give them our tax dollars, claims to be a 'Canadian' network, and then uses our money to cover American politicians while giving far less coverage to prominent Conservative Canadian politicians. It's yet another reason why CBC – which has morphed from a public broadcaster into a Liberal-controlled State Broadcaster – needs to be defunded.

Liberal MP calls on Tory leader O'Toole to remove Derek Sloan from caucus

A Liberal MP is pressuring the newly minted Conservative leader, Erin O'Toole, to remove Hastings - Lennox and Addington MP Derek Sloan from the Conservative caucus. After O'Toole won the leadership race early Monday morning, Pam Damoff, MP for Oakville North-Burlington, posted a letter to her Twitter account Tuesday, pushing the new party leader to denounce Sloan, who came in fourth in the leadership race, bringing in only 14 per cent of the vote.

Prominent Neo-Nazi Recruiter Finally Before the Courts in Montreal

Nearly two years after B'nai Brith Canada alerted both police and the Jewish community to one of the internet's leading neo-Nazi influencers, the culprit is finally due to appear in court. Gabriel Sohier Chaput is a 33-year-old Montreal resident who, under the pseudonym of Charles Zeiger, was one of the primary propagandists for the Daily Stormer, a large U.S.-based hate site.

Quebec Court Decision Could Have Far Reaching Implications on Abortion Debate

This was no garden variety case of domestic violence. Ghazi stabbed his wife 19 times with a carving fork. She survived the attack, yet he pled guilty to murder. It seems she was 36 weeks pregnant with a son at the time and of the 19 stab wounds, 12 were on the left side of her stomach and at least 9 wounds were caused to the fetus in the womb. While the baby was born at the trauma centre where the mother was taken after the attack, the cause of death given to the court was trauma caused by a sharp object in utero. This raised the legal question: is a fetus a human being?

University of Victoria Institutes Anti-White Book Club

The book club promises to be “overwhelming, emotional, and at times, make you question many truths about yourself, and the way you view the world”. The counsellor isn’t going to be there for a distraught person of colour discovering the horrors his ancestors endured. They will be there for White students, emotionally broken from having been told by educators that their ethnic group alone is responsible for all modern social ills and historical atrocities. Needless to say, I have joined the book club in order to investigate and glean what information I can. Hopefully I won’t need to call up the counsellor to relieve my inevitable shame over being a member of the first race to abolish slavery.

C3RF Update – 28 August 2020

This week's update leaves summer scheduling plans behind in recognition of Canada's headlong rush into tyranny by its, so-called, minority government. It is clear now that, with the suspension and then prorogation of Canada's parliamentary democracy, Canada is operating like a one-party state dead set on moving away from nationhood to become a "green", global entity. This leap of faith is both cynical and reckless. It is cynical as it leverages the need for everyday citizens to have access to emergency pandemic funding to force a favourable confidence vote on a related, upcoming Throne Speech. It is reckless in that it takes the nation down an irretrievable and demonstrably errant path even as it destroys the energy and resource sectors that made its economy great. The Wuhan virus crisis, the "climate emergency" and political flim-flammery have become the troika that underpins the potential loss of a free nation.

USA – UPCOMING ELECTION

Democrats Offer a Rancid Smorgasbord

At the virtual Democrat National Convention last week—where the Democratic National Committee removed the word God from the Pledge of Allegiance—the public was treated to tasteless and remarkably unfunny jokes from Hollywood’s Julia Louis-Dreyfus, and a video featuring Donna Hylton who spent 27 years in prison for the grisly murder and torture of Thomas Vigliarolo, a NY businessman found stuffed inside a steamer trunk and left to rot in Harlem.

And to top it off was the candidate himself, who was proud to admit that his daughter is so enamored of the recently indicted rap singer Cardi B that he agreed to an interview with her, but mercifully did not play her newest hit, WAP, perhaps the filthiest “song” I’ve ever heard.

The Anti-American 2020 Democrat Vision of America

This is 2020 - not 2008. If Americans are going to accept Obama's radical leftist Democrat "ends justify the means" religion, they need to understand exactly what those ends are. The 2020 United States presidential election is the battle between globalism and Americanism. It is the fight between planetary central government and American sovereignty.

Young Conservative Rising Star Madison Cawthorn Had an Incredible Ending to His RNC Speech

Cawthorn's entire message was inspiring, but it was a moment at the very end that made our jaws drop. As he was finishing his remarks, two men came from behind the stage to place a walker in front of him. Cawthorn grabbed hold of it and actually stood up as he pledged to be "a radical for freedom." "I say to Americans who love our country – young and old – be a radical for freedom," Cawthorn said. "Be a radical for liberty. Be a radical for our republic. For which I stand."

FREE SPEECH

College students say free speech is “unacceptable”

The president and two vice-presidents of the Princeton Graduate Student Government replied to their school’s shocking affirmation of free speech and the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America, calling it “tone-deaf” and “unacceptable.”

In a letter written in response to Eisgruber and the administration, the three opined that the free speech policy protects “hate” at the university. They stated, “We as a student body are not looking for ‘dialogue’ on how to cope with institutional racism,” and averred that an emphasis on the importance of free expression “reads as a typical dog-whistle often used to excuse racist speech and hateful actions.”

From Brexit to Belarus: the ongoing fight for democracy

There is something nauseating in the British chattering classes’ attempt to cozy up to the Belarusian uprising for democracy. For these are the same people who spent the past four years trying to do in the UK what Lukashenko is currently doing in Belarus – that is, silence people’s democratic cry and write off their democratic votes. Lukashenko does it with batons and torture, while our far more polite elites tried to do it with court cases, parliamentary intrigue and a relentless campaign of Project Fear. But the motive was the same: to prevent the supposedly problematic little people from having their say and screwing up political life.

BLACK LIVES MATTER

The World's Red-Green Axis Has Come to Our Streets

BLM, like its American Islamist brethren, is avowedly neo-Marxist, anti-capitalist, anti-individualist, anti-democratic and anti-American. It wishes to erase and rewrite America's history, destroy and rebuild her institutions, and overthrow her political system. In short, it seeks to remake the entire country in its own image. Both movements' unwavering allegiance to identity politics, ideological conformity and totalitarian tactics betray the carefully cultivated image portrayed by their allies. Those who dare criticize the movements are publicly shamed or canceled and fraudulently charged with racism or Islamophobia, regardless of whether they are black or Muslim themselves. Look at the many individuals fired from their employment for questioning BLM over this past month in order to gauge the high priests of censorship at work.

What Will Replace the Police? Ten Historical Examples

We do not have to depend on the imagination to envision a world without a local police department. The things that we need police for — security, enforcement, investigation, discipline — do not go away when you eliminate local constabularies. These tasks slide into the hands of other social forces, which almost always function without transparency, due process, or consistency. They are never less violent or more merciful to those who break a society's value system.

COVID-19

Hydroxychloroquine Follies

A coalition of "progressives," the Democratic Party, government bureaucrats and media refuses to promote or make an effective, inexpensive treatment available. Why? So they can politically exploit the pandemic for as long as possible and get the Presidential ticket of former Vice President Joe Biden and California Sen. Kamala Harris elected. Trump could cure cancer, Andrew Wilcow said, and the Democrats would defend the rights of tumors.

THE ENVIRONMENT

California's Green Energy Dark Age

The Bay Area has the single largest concentration of 'green' businesses in the country. It was also the first to feel California's rolling outages caused by the state's messy infrastructure of solar panels and wind turbines, faulty and erratic, tied together by 'virtual power plants'. The real color of 'green energy' is black. The resource shortages of the green energy dark age will turn its practitioners into barbarians. California will finally reach its 100% renewables target when its population has learned to cook in wood stoves, read by candlelight, and live in the darkness of 'green energy'.

Jihadi Yaser Abdel Said Captured in North Texas – The Murder of His Daughters is LAWFUL in Islam

Yaser Abdel Said, the jihadi who shot his two young daughters to death for violating Islam's barbaric sharia, was captured last evening by FBI SWAT agents in Justin, Texas. On New Year's Day 2008, Yaser Said drove his two daughters, Amina and Sarah, in his taxi cab to "get something to eat." At some point, he pulled the cab over in Irving, Texas and shot them both to death for violating “allah’s divine law”/sharia by dating non-muslim males. Prior to this, Said’s daughters reported Yaser sexually/physically abused them.

Civic Nationalism is a Fraud

The only course of action that will avert this tragedy is the complete ending of non-white immigration into white countries, the gradual repatriation of non-whites back to their homelands and the restoration of white fertility back to replacement level. This, and only this, can save whites from replacement and extinction, and Western society from collapse.

You see, civic nationalists are terrified of being called racist by non-whites, Civic nationalism truly is a disgusting fraud. It isn’t even nationalism, it’s no different to globalism, it’s vague, it’s practically impossible to enforce, it’s born from cowardice, it’s never worked and it never will work. But most importantly, it cannot save our people, whites, from replacement and extinction. Please, for the sake of our people, don’t fall for this disgusting fraud.

Project 1619: When Will Conservatives Stop Begging Non-whites To Love Western Civilization?

Andrew Roberts is a renowned conservative, Visiting Fellow at Stanford University and Visiting Professor at King's College London, who believes that everyone in the world can be educated to love the democratic values of Western civilization. If only blacks and immigrants were taught to appreciate the immense value of Greek philosophy, Roman law, the Sermon of the Mount, the Renaissance, and the Enlightenment, they "could learn about the best of their civilization, and how it benefited — and continues to benefit — mankind."

America Stands in the Way of Global Governance

The war against our freedom is waged by the United Nations, its myriad of non-governmental organizations (NGOs), and global communists with large endowments and billions to burn for their cause, paying and using useful idiots within each country to create havoc and betray their own history and Constitution under the guise of fighting fascism and desiring to install socialism.

Appeasement: The European Sickness

Europe is in the grip of a uniquely virulent and pernicious disease that threatens the wellbeing of its peoples and of the world: not Coronavirus, but appeasement. Anglo-French foreign policy in the 1930s was also dominated by appeasement -- of Nazi Germany -- a policy that failed to prevent one of the greatest catastrophes that ever engulfed civilisation and that led to the deaths of millions.

Now, Britain and France seek to appease the three powers that most threaten the world today: Iran, China and Russia. As permanent members of the UN Security Council, last week both Britain and France genuflected to their arch-enemies by refusing to support their greatest ally, the United States, in its resolution to extend the UN arms embargo on Iran. The US resolution was of course opposed by China and Russia, both of which intend to sell advanced conventional weapons to Iran as soon as the embargo runs out in October.

What American Moguls Can Learn From Hong Kong Hero Jimmy Lai

How many millionaires and billionaires are willing to risk their lives and fortunes to fight for freedom and democracy? In Hong Kong, there is at least one. His name is Jimmy Lai. In the Muslim world, the push is on to normalize ties with Israel

The Middle East had proven to be an intractable Gordian Knot, one that every American president had tried to disentangle without success. And then President Donald Trump came along and, like Alexander the Great before him, he had a simple solution – don't fuss with the knot, cut it!

Trump's approach was to stop dealing with the Palestinians and Iran. Instead, he marginalized them. This meant focusing on Israel's security and status. He walked away from the Iran Deal, announced that the settlements in the West Bank weren't illegal, and moved the U.S. Embassy in Israel to Jerusalem. The Palestinians stood by helplessly, unable to stop this pro-Israel trend.

An Open Letter to Julia Louis Dreyfus by Bruce Bawer

Speaking of getting rich, you claimed that Joe Biden would be a president for all Americans, "not just billionaires." It was funny to hear you mouth the "b" word, because I've repeatedly heard you insist in interviews – notably one, not so many years ago, with Howard Stern – that you're not from a rich background, not one of "those" Dreyfuses. You know this is a lie. You know that your father, who died in 2016, was the Paris-born Gérard Louis-Dreyfus, who in the U.S. used the first name William, and you know he was filthy rich. In 2006, according to Forbes, he was worth over $3 billion; presumably you inherited a chunk of that, which, in addition to your Seinfeld and Veep money, must add up to a tidy sum.

Allah Knows Best with Dr. Bill Warner

Islam has many commands for Muslims that turn out to have negative health results. For instance, fasting during the month of Ramadan is one of the Five Pillars. Pregnant women do not have to fast, but a woman can be pregnant and not be aware of it during the first two months. If this occurs the fasting can cause fetal damage to vision, hearing and learning defects. Then there is the matter of the Koran allows first cousins to marry, which can cause birth defects.
