Who is the greatest military threat to Canada? Is it China? Is it Al Qaeda, ISIS or the Taliban? Or maybe it's Russia? Well, according to Justin Trudeau and his defence minister, Harjit Sajjan, it's us: Rebel News. The United State Department of Defense and the Canadian Armed Forces, have both funded a joint cyber intelligence operation against Rebel News.

The Two Michaels, Kovrig and Spavor Scheduled to Stand Trial in China in Coming Days

Li Jianfeng, a former judge in China, says that because the detention of Kovrig and Spavor was in retaliation for the arrest of Huawei executive Meng Wanzhou in Canada, all of the court decisions will be a reflection of the will of the Chinese Communist Party (CCP). Li says another possibility for Kovrig and Spavor is that their cases will remain in limbo and they will be held in detention indefinitely, depending on what happens with Meng's case.

Stephen Harper: Tech Integration with China 'Incompatible'

"The biggest single concern that Western citizens have about big tech is about power. It's about privacy, it's about surveillance, it's about the use of personal data," former Prime Minister Stephen Harper said, speaking at the Conference of Defence Associations Institute's Ottawa Conference on Security and Defence. The entire Chinese technology system is designed for that purpose." Harper said he's not against Chinese consumer products, but that Beijing should not be allowed to have its technology at the core of the systems of Western democracies.

Biden Admin to 'Loan' 1.5 Million AstraZeneca Doses To Canada

Canada's 'world-leading' vaccine procurement promised by the Trudeau government continues to devolve into desperation. Now, after Canada asked the USA for help, the Biden Administration is planning to give 1.5 million AstraZeneca doses to Canada. The US has stockpiled millions of doses of the AstraZeneca vaccine. However, that vaccine has not yet been authorized for actual use in the United States.

Is this our future? The Canadian government is now ordering parents to accept child's decision to get sex-change procedures. An arrest warrant will be served on father this Tuesday for "illegally" discussing details of his daughter's ordeal. Trial coming up in next month. Faces 5 years in prison. See chilling video of MassResistance interview with father.

I am fighting the far left based on a civil disobedience defense! I am now back in court for a five day criminal trial that will last at least five days . . . From April 12-16. That trial that could land me in jail for up to five years for speaking truth about state sponsored child abuse. FYI . . . I am blocked from sharing any videos at this time that oppose the sterilization of children! Please watch the video I was finally able to post! I am the "Canadian" parent in this documentary!

"Grave concerns" about BC father's arrest for opposing child's gender transition: Justice Centre

"We have ongoing grave concerns about the state's imposition of ideology and gender orthodoxy in this case and others like it to override parental rights and freedom of expression, and concerned and dissenting medical opinions," said JCCF litigation director Jay Cameron. "Anytime the state attempts to become the enforcer of ideology or dogma it asserts infallibility and overturns the marketplace of ideas and the constitutional rights of Canadians. That is not the proper role of the state. Oppression is always sure to follow."

Canada: Let's kill the mentally ill and put them out of our, I mean, their misery

What happened to suicide prevention? Think about that; someone who has severe mental illness, probably has thought about suicide, will no longer have to take their own lives. No, the State will do it. And following Covid there should be many lining up for the blue juice. COVID-19 is having a negative impact on Canadians' mental health, with many seeing their stress levels double since the onset of the pandemic.

COVID-19 Hysteria and Panic

Saul Alinsky, the grandfather of the modern Democratic Party, said it best in his book Rules for Radicals: if there is a real crisis, try to make it worse, and if there isn't a real crisis, make one up because it's only during a crisis that you can transfer individual liberty to the government. My friend, Dr. Bob Fulton, a retired professor of sociology at the University of Minnesota, taught me the important lesson that most people develop their opinions based upon emotion, not logic.

Remdesivir: George Soros & Bill Gates Partner with China on Coronavirus Drug!

A year later we now have a Global Pandemic emerging from Mainland China and the Chinese are the holders of the patent for the treatment drug and they are also included in the United Nation's UNITAID initiative that will see them benefit with lower drug pricing. UNITAID is the UN and this is bio-warfare, where they control the drugs. China did not steal Gilead's patent; Gilead was a willing participant, they are even working with the Chinese government on clinical trials. Has the coronavirus outbreak been the vehicle for George Soros, Bill Gates, and the United Nations to implement the New World Order? It sure looks like it! Checkmate!

Vaccine Passports: Opportunities and Threats

The vaccine passport threatens various human rights. Rights like free movement, personal privacy, and the right to choose whether or not to take a vaccine, particularly if one's doctor might recommend not doing so. If you do not take the vaccine, you lose freedoms – to socialize, to travel, to board a plane, or enter a store. "Show me your app and/or papers, or stay away!"

BIG TECH

More Big Tech Hypocrisy: Apple Blackballs Parler Again!

The astonishingly onerous working conditions for Apple's Chinese employees would never have been tolerated in most Western countries, but why would Apple have cared? It's all about the bottom line. They knew about the concentration camps in Xinjiang Province re-educating and doing far worse (rape, torture, forced organ transplants) to their Uyghur and Tibetan populations as well as to Christians, political dissidents, Falun Gong practitioners, and others who dare to question them. And yet they take offense at social media sites like Parler, playing the censorship game as if they had some kind of moral high ground. How shameful. How repugnant. How opposed to the Bill of Rights.

Twitter suspends me for criticizing Cardi B

Politicians such as Maxine Waters can praise and encourage BLM/Antifa violence via Twitter, and they still have access. Iran's Ayatollah Ali Khamenei can send anti-Jewish and anti-Israel tweets, and he's still on the platform. But dare criticize rapper Cardi B over her depraved 2021 Grammy Awards "performance" featuring her song, "WAP," which itself would have been censored pre-Sexual Devolution, and that's a suspension for you.

Amazon's book bullying is just the latest act of woke intolerance

Amazon's decision to squash this one book, "When Harry became Sally", was never about any matter of principle. It is about the deployment of power in the battle now raging to determine the shape of American culture. Amazon has sided firmly with the bullies. ## Forget COVID, Global Oligarchs Are Now Rehearsing For a 'Cyber Pandemic'

A pandemic of black-hat cyber attacks against critical infrastructure would necessitate mandated and authenticated digital IDs for every person on earth prior to being allowed Internet privileges. Secondly, emergency shutdowns would cause economic chaos. This is a critical article to read and digest. It isn't an easy read. However, if you were caught by surprise by the COVID panic/pandemic narrative, this is a clear warning of what could come next. Technocracy.

The 'Great Reset' — the Animal Farm version

The future the ruling class contemplates is one in which "rights" and privileges will be granted only to those people who comply. Global mobility has plummeted, enforced confinement is mandated, jobs have vanished, goods are becoming scarcer, surveillance is omnipresent, and noncompliance is punished. We will be told that this is all for the greater good. The elite have turned the world into a zoo, with themselves as keepers and the rest of us as the animals that must be trained or destroyed.

New United Nations report claims 'Islamophobia' is on the rise

A new report from the United Nations highlights growing Islamophobia and excessive surveillance of Muslims in countries around the world. The United Nations Human Rights Council report, which was released last week, is unsparing in its critique that governments around the world, including in the United States and China, should do more to combat Islamophobia. Where is the UN report on Islamic anti-Semitism? On Muslim persecution of Christians? On the persecution of Hindus in Pakistan, Afghanistan and Bangladesh? Why is one group and one group only singled out for especial solicitude?

CHINA

Taming the Chinese Rare-Earth Tiger

Since Rare Earth Elements (REE) refining produces significant toxic and radioactive waste, taming the China tiger will require significant U.S. leadership and resolve. President Trump started the effort, which resulted in the U.S. becoming the world's second largest producer of REE ores within three years. Canada and former president Trump also took the difficult step of building REE-refining facilities. The question is whether the Biden administration is up to the task and continues this vital and difficult work of taming the rare-earth tiger.

The Danish Parliament has approved a new law that bans foreign governments from financing mosques in Denmark. The measure is aimed at preventing Muslim countries, particularly Qatar, Saudi Arabia and Turkey, from promoting Islamic extremism in Danish mosques and prayer facilities. Denmark joins a growing list of European countries — including Austria, Belgium, France, Germany, Italy, the Netherlands and Switzerland — which have taken varying degrees of action to prevent foreign governments from financing the construction and upkeep of mosques on their territories.

Aside from the embassies of the U.S. and Guatemala, already in Jerusalem, and that of Kosovo, just about to be, and the two “branches of their embassies in Jerusalem” that now both Hungary and the Czech Republic have established, Equatorial Guinea’s president pledged in mid-February to move his country’s embassy to Jerusalem. This makes it the second African state to announce such a move; at the end of 2020 Malawi’s Foreign Minister, Eisenhower Mkaka, announced that his country would be moving its embassy to Jerusalem by the summer of 2021. At least seven other countries have expressed an interest in moving their embassies. These include Honduras, Paraguay, the Dominican Republic, Brazil, Moldova, Serbia, and Romania

Israel is not an Apartheid State

The one-sided UN resolutions on Israel continue. Of the 23 UNGA resolutions in 2020 that criticized individual countries, 17 involved Israel. Perhaps the impact of the Abraham Accords, begun on September 15, 2020 with the establishment by Bahrain and the UAE, followed by others, of formal diplomatic relations with Israel will dispose of the false accusation that Israel is an apartheid state, and end the IAW goal which is denial of the legitimacy of the State of Israel.

Last night, the Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Bill, passed the House of Commons at second reading by 359 votes to 263. This mammoth piece of legislation, tackling everything from knife crime to dangerous driving, contains within it the most draconian restrictions on protest for a generation. When you are at the table with some of the top criminal profilers in the world, talking about industrial scale election fraud, you do more listening than talking. And the listening was interesting. The profilers have zero interest in U.S. elections. Two of them did not vote and had unflattering opinions about both presidential candidates. Their comments were most insightful because they saw the current questions about election fraud so differently than the American media. To them, 2020 election fraud was an industrial level crime. It was of such magnitude that it moved from the category of an election crime to a sovereign crime.

The Poor Boston Marathon Bomber Is Suffering, and He Wants Justice

All the Boston Marathon jihad murderer Dzhokhar Tsarnaev did was murder three people; why is everyone being so mean to him? Young Tsarnaev is suffering, and he wants you to feel his pain: CBS Boston reported Wednesday that he has filed a hand-written lawsuit claiming that he has been mistreated in prison. This complaint shows that the killer, besides being a confirmed jihadi with the deaths of several infidels on his record, has also mastered what has proved to be in many cases the most lucrative game of all: the game of victimhood.

The January 6th 'Insurrection' that Wasn't

The "attack" on the Capitol started well before then President Trump finished his speech at the rally at The Ellipse. This attack was no spontaneous event as alleged by Democrats, the Media, and the Radical Left. It is evident to any police officer who has been on a police line this attack was preplanned when coupled with the intelligence compiled by the FBI Joint Terrorism Task Force (JTTF) and other agencies. From the videos, this is self-evident, e.g., coordination, tactics in engaging the police lines, hand signals, gas masks, bear spray, goggles, helmets, knee pads, improvised weapons, and milk to neutralize crowd control gasses.

Road to Perdition

We know communists and fascists began infiltrating our nation in the early twentieth century. We know they declared that our culture must be eradicated and our faith in God broken for a totalitarian socialist state to rise out of the ashes of a free republic. Who opened the door to this contagion and left it wide open? Who caused the plague to spread to a point where it has now infected the whole of our society and our culture, now unrecognizable to anyone over 50 years of age?

No more cakes and ale

When a free society collectively agrees to the surrender of its freedoms, undertakes to hasten its demise—Western civ has got to go—and concentrates on the relatively trivial in the process of its dismemberment, we are witnessing a failure of intelligence and a sapping of character, the besetting vices of the modern West, as they were, according to Bryant, the mortal defects of the Roman Empire. To rephrase

T.S. Eliot from The Hollow Men, this is how the world ends, not with a bang but a simper.

Rule by Left-Wing Lunatics by Ann Coulter

As we have seen throughout the last year of antifa/BLM riots, in blue states, it's now legal to commit arson, attempted murder, assault on a law enforcement officer and destruction of property — provided the perp is antifa or antifa-friendly. On the other hand, if you're a conservative, don't commit a misdemeanor in a blue state. Proud Boys, Capitol Hill protesters, police and other presumed Trump supporters are getting more prison time than actual murderers for minor infractions.

Assembly for me, but not for thee

The actions of the police were despicable. This was a gathering mainly of women, who wanted to show their sorrow for Sarah Everard and their opposition to male violence. And what did the cops, many of them burly men, do? They manhandled the women. They dragged them away from where they were laying flowers and paying their respects. They threw some of them to the ground, arrested others, tried to break up this act of public mourning and of public defiance. It was some of the most boneheaded, tone-deaf policing we have seen in recent years. The images of Met officers attacking women who were expressing anger over the alleged murder of a woman by a Met officer have sent shockwaves around the world.

We warned you that sacrificing liberty at the altar of safety would harm public life and throttle the democratic right to register our concerns as a citizenry. That's what happened on Saturday, just as we said it would.

We find out from the Hadith that the suffering of the Kafirs made Mohammed laugh. However, no one had better laugh at Mohammed.

Humor and jokes poke fun at our foibles and flaws. But Mohammed is the ideal man and has no flaws. According to Islamic doctrine, he is the perfect pattern to follow. In 1400 years, there has never been a Mohammed joke. The Mohammed cartoons have caused rioting and murder. Something as simple as naming a teddy bear, Mohammed, caused riots and imprisonment.
