Canada: Muslim ‘Minister for Women and Gender Equality’ refers to Taliban as ‘our brothers’

Canada’s minister for women and gender equality Maryam Monsef “I want to take this opportunity to speak to our brothers, the Taliban”. Monsef knows full well what the Taliban represents for women and gender rights, which she has the responsibility to represent in Canada. The Taliban’s regulations for women will send chills down your spine. They include:

- killing women for not wearing a burqa,
- gouging out the eyes of a pregnant woman because she had a job,
- setting a woman on fire for “bad cooking,”
- going door-to-door, forcibly marrying girls as young as 12, and forcing them into sex slavery.

'We wished we could have stayed longer': Canada's last military flight leaves Kabul, days before Aug. 31 deadline

Canada officially put an end to its airborne evacuations in Afghanistan on Thursday after pulling out about 3,700 Canadian nationals and Afghan refugees, a "heartbreaking" decision that leaves thousands more stranded at the hands of the Taliban and now also the Islamic State. "We wish we could have stayed longer and rescued everyone who was so desperate to leave".

Former Afghan interpreter to Justin Trudeau: There will be 'blood on your hands'

Evan Solomon interviewed Maryam Sahar, a former Afghan interpreter who worked with Canadians and she had a message for Justin Trudeau. "If my family gets executed, or any other family gets executed, know that you have the blood on your hands," she said. "I will not fault the Canadian Armed Forces because they have been fighting very hard to help interpreters out.

No, COVID-19 vaccine passports and mandatory vaccination do not 'protect the health and safety of Canadians'

It is therefore nobody's business to know whether another person is vaccinated or not. And there is no reason to expect, pressure or require another person to "take the jab." The campaign to vaccinate children and young adults is particularly offensive, since they bear all the risks from short- and long-term adverse events and obtain no measurable benefits from the shot.

Toronto Police Association comes out against mandatory vaccinations

Following an abrupt move by the Toronto Police Service (TPS) to implement a mandatory vaccination requirement for all of its uniformed and civilian employees, the Toronto Police Association (TPA) released a statement opposing the mandate. "The TPA must make every effort to protect all of our members and therefore, does not support this mandatory vaccination announcement or mandatory disclosure."

Unvaccinated candidates barred from London, Ont. election debates

London North Centre People's Party of Canada candidate Marc Emery, who is not vaccinated and does not plan to be, tweeted a screenshot of the invitation, saying the policy will preclude him from debating, despite being a candidate on the ballot. "Any candidate forum or debate that attempts to bar unvaxxed candidates or citizen voters, I will not participate," Emery tweeted. I will instead hold a boisterous 90 minute rally with bullhorns outside the doors of any venue that tries to exclude the NoVax population from attending.”

EDITORIAL: Trudeau's $40-billion 'power grab'

Finance Minister Chrystia Freeland said the Liberals would spend up to $100 billion of tax money over three years to promote economic recovery, thus making the world safe for political lobbyists, fighting to get their clients a slice of the pie. But while it's still early days in the election, polls suggest Trudeau may have miscalculated on whether voters wanted to be bribed with their own money, all of which has to be paid back eventually through higher taxes, reduced services or more debt.

The Forgotten

In the current election campaign, there is scant mention of tens of thousands of Canadians who have had their lives turned upside down with their livelihoods and financial security lost. They face grim and uncertain futures. Governments have acted callously, inhumanely and unethically.

Trudeau hungry for applause and beset by intellectual idleness by Rex Murphy

When you waste your time with foolishness, irrational fads and pseudo-causes, when you continually diagnose your own country as a cauldron of racism and colonialism, tear down the statues of heroes and founders, virtue-signal at volume ten over your feminism, deride blue collar workers, hail your greatest industry as a “planet destroyer,” it comes as no surprise that you pile on just one more silly, vain pretense, i.e., that suddenly everyone in Canada wants an election called in mid-August. During the very period, no less, when every citizen in the country has a stockpile of mouth-and-nose guards and are standing six-feet apart every time they go out to buy a loaf of bread and toilet tissue.

Will Justin Trudeau Be Held Accountable For The First Time In His Life?

The accumulation of Trudeau's lies, his arrogance, his willingness to turn Canadians against each other, plus his past comments expressing support and admiration for ruthless dictatorships may be changing the minds of enough Canadians. Justin Trudeau has become a uniquely divisive and dangerous force in Canadian politics, and this election is Canada's chance to rid our nation of his malignant influence through the democratic process.

Taliban going door-to-door seeking to kill Christians

Critics of Prime Minister Justin Trudeau claim his government has bungled the Afghanistan crisis by failing to evacuate Canadian citizens, diplomatic staff and Afghan nationals who helped Canada's military in a timely manner and taking a soft approach with the Taliban. Trudeau was forced to clarify the government's position on the Taliban after Liberal Foreign Affairs Minister Marc Garneau did not rule out the possibility of recognizing the terrorist group as the legitimate government in Afghanistan.

Why Maxime Bernier's Exclusion From Debates Weakens Canada's Democracy

Leaving Maxime Bernier out of the debate is not just about depriving he and the PPC of a platform, it's about depriving many Canadians of the opportunity to have their views represented at the highest level. If our country can't even debate something as fundamental as when the government can and can't deprive people of our rights, then what is the point in calling ourselves a democratic nation?

Sharia is Growing in Canada with Bill Warner

The National Council of Canadian Muslims (NCCM) published a lengthy list of how they want to bring Sharia to Canada. They will use a 61 point list of recommendations to prevent "hate" and "Islamophobia" at all levels of government—federal, provincial and municipal. If the program is implemented, it will be illegal to say anything about Islam, including quotes from Islamic doctrine that displeases a Muslim. Under the Sharia, slander does not mean telling a lie but means saying anything that offends a Muslim.

C3RF Update, 26 Aug 2021

C3RF Update 27 Aug 2021 compares our current situation to that of non-Muslims in Muslim jurisdictions under the centuries-old "Pact of Umar". Then as now, populations are divided into the favoured and the "other" with the latter undergoing discrimination and hardship to either nudge them into compliance or simply diminish their humanity. What makes this a really neat trick in today's Canada is that the follow-on "Pact of Trudeau" is being orchestrated without a shot being fired. This, in a country that, 79 years ago, sent its men to to far-away beaches to die in the name of freedom.

AFGHANISTAN

Thanks to Joe Biden's failed leadership in Afghanistan, we are facing the biggest foreign policy failure in a lifetime.

Criminal Negligence

It would be interesting to ask General McKenzie if he knows what binds together Al Qaeda, the Taliban, Hizbollah, ISIS, the Muslim Brotherhood/Hamas, the constitutions of Iran, Egypt, Afghanistan, Iraq, Saudi Arabia, et al, the Heads of State of every Islamic nation on earth (57 members) under the OIC, all of the prominent U.S. Islamic organizations, and the "terrorists" who perpetrated attacks against the West over the last 20 years including in Boston, Fort Hood, Arlington (VA), Pensacola, New York, Chattanooga, Canada, France, Spain, Italy, Germany, UK, Belgium, and today in Kabul. The answer is: Allah's Divine Law – sharia. This level of stupidity and unprofessionalism is staggering.

13 Americans Killed in Kabul

The American government many years ago decided that Islam had nothing whatsoever to do with terrorism, and that studying Islamic doctrine in order to understand the behavior, motives, and goals of jihad terrorists was not only a worthless endeavor, but one that was undertaken only by "Islamophobes" who were more of a threat to the United States than the jihadis they were studying in order to defeat.

Crisis of Courage

Why is the Taliban still in existence? And what is the result of our failure? Afghan women have lost all rights and privileges, 12-year-old girls are being raped on a regular basis by the Taliban, gays will be dropped off the highest buildings. Our fingerprints are all over every single one of those rapes and murders because we had 20 years to obliterate the Taliban, and we did not do it.

Trump Administration's Careful Afghanistan Withdrawal Plans Were Ignored By Biden Regime

The overarching theme was a conditions-based withdrawal, whereby the U.S. military would leave Afghanistan in increments if the Taliban met clear conditions. Among other things, the Taliban were required to reject and repudiate Al Qaeda, and would have to negotiate in good faith. The U.S. would also maintain a special operations contingent in place, and would retain the capacity to launch air strikes under specific circumstances. The Trump plan included retaining control of Bagram Air Base until all Americans were withdrawn from Afghanistan. A large, sprawling site, Bagram has multiple airfields and other facilities that safely can handle significant amounts of traffic and also host a large population.

COVID-19 UPDATES

The Bad And The Ugly About COVID In America

Many postulate that the goal is either the Great Reset or Socialism or remaking our society. Vaccine passports could be a gateway to monitoring everyone all the time. Another postulate due to concerns about climate change is that COVID-19 and the vaccine are meant as a means for depopulation. Does the vaccine affect fertility? That still hasn't been evaluated. More deaths have been associated with the vaccine than any other vaccine in our history. Why hasn't there been any inquiry into vaccine-related deaths? Will ADE come into play in the future winter seasons?

A Victory for Natural Immunity and Sanity

I've written at length about the bizarre lack of acknowledgment of COVID survivors who possess natural immunity. They should be recognized if not thanked as the indispensable contributors to the herd immunity once so desired in America. Instead, the nation's vax fanatics, consumed by a herd mentality, wholly ignore them, to the detriment of a rational response to the pandemic. Those with natural immunity are flatly ignored by those who want to jab everyone. The mad vaxxers would not only unnecessarily stick a needle in all those with natural immunity, but they'd also mask them up — as they are, curiously, masking up even the vaccinated. They would probably fit them with leper bells if they could.

BIG TECH

Is Apple Gearing Up for China-Style Internet Control in the U.S.?

It's well known that China has one of the most sophisticated and extensive Internet filtering systems in the world -- "the Great Firewall" -- one which Google, Microsoft, Yahoo, and all big companies doing business in China have abetted. After Beijing blocked Google in 2010, the company hastily introduced a censored version of its site. These firms have readily signed on to pledges for internet censorship, and complied with China's well-developed content regulation system, turning a blind eye to the repression of Falun Gong, Uighurs, and anyone opposed to the government.

Taliban leaders freely used Twitter and Facebook's WhatsApp as they took power in Afghanistan

Taliban soldiers are now going door to door forcibly marrying girls as young as 12, and forcing them into sex slavery, but to Facebook and Twitter, it's a "content challenge" on whether or not to host the Taliban. How do Facebook and Twitter now answer questions about their globalist, "progressive" bias in favor of the most barbaric human rights abusers, while continuing to crack down on and silence supporters of Judeo-Christian democracies, human rights defenders and truth-tellers? They have no answers, so they get their mainstream media cronies to minimize this serious issue for them, and buy time for them until the next news cycle.

Parler CEO: Afghanistan fell to the Taliban days ago. Why is Twitter still giving them space?

Twitter would have us believe that it engaged in a thorough and careful review of former President Trump's tweets back in January and concluded that its platform would only be safe if he were removed permanently. But today, a terrorist organization that systematically oppresses and abuses women and girls, employs terror as its chief "negotiating" tool, and executes dissenters, can use Twitter. Think about that. Banning the Taliban from Parler wasn't a difficult decision for us.

The moral case for fossil fuels

Can this war on fossil fuels really be justified? Coal, oil and gas still supply 80 per cent of the world's energy. Developing countries are using fossil fuels to pull themselves out of abject poverty. Should this progress really be halted to the end of tackling climate change? I'm not a climate-change denier. I'm an advocate of human flourishing.

A group of unlikely heroes is lining up to fight tyranny in Australia

It turns out, though, that not everyone in Australia is cowed. Video messages from Australian truck drivers have surfaced in some of the alternative social media sites in recent days stating that they are going to take their country back, by going on strike and creating a blockade that will choke the supply chain. I remember how Lech Wałęsa and his fellow Gdańsk shipyard workers, in 1980, created the Solidarity movement that was the first major political movement to stand against the Soviet Union. There was a straight line between the shipyard workers' strike and the fall of the Berlin Wall nine years later and the Soviet Union's final demise in 1991.

UK jihad preacher Anjem Choudary calls on Taliban to enforce Sharia fully, collecting jizya and amputating hands

While the Western intelligentsia insists that Sharia is completely benign and compatible with Western secularism, the reality is that "stoning adulterers, chopping off the hands of thieves and lashing anyone caught drinking alcohol" is taught by all the various schools of Islamic jurisprudence. These things aren't "extremist"; they're mainstream. But of course, the "counterterror" establishment in the West only considers opponents of jihad violence and Sharia oppression to be "extremist."

UK Parliament Holding Devious Biden In Contempt

Members of Parliament, including some who served alongside U.S. soldiers in Afghanistan, accused Biden of "throwing us and everybody else to the

The Drossy Touch of Joe Biden

Almost everything Joe Biden has touched since entering office has turned to dross. None of his blame-gaming, none of his distortions, none of his fantasies and unreality can mask that truth. Cutting to the Chase: Why Trump Was Driven from Office

Trump was hated for the qualities that made him an excellent president, for “Making America Great Again,” and for being a towering, if controversial, figure. The FBI has found scant evidence that the Jan. 6 attack on the U.S. Capitol was the result of an organized plot to overturn the presidential election result, according to four current and former law enforcement officials. Heads Up, Jew-Haters! Don't Take This Medicine!

Maybe I don't frequent the right journals, internet sites, TV shows, or radio stations, because all I've seen and read and heard since the 1960s is that the Arabs who call themselves "Palestinians" — you know, those perpetual "victims" who have received literally billions — maybe trillions — in "aid" from America — have become famous for a few things only. What I've never seen or read or heard is that the Arabs who call themselves "Palestinians" have done one single solitary thing to benefit mankind. Their singular obsession has been to annihilate the Big Satan, America, and the Little Satan, Israel.
