HOW TO DESTROY THE WEST

CORRUPT THE YOUNG. GET THEM AWAY FROM RELIGION. ENCOURAGE THEIR INTEREST IN SEX. MAKE THEM SUPERFICIAL BY FOCUSING THEIR ATTENTION ON SPORTS, SENSUAL ENTERTAINMENTS AND OTHER TRIVIALITIES. ALWAYS PREACH TRUE DEMOCRACY BUT SEIZE POWER AS FAST AND AS RUTHLESSLY AS POSSIBLE. ENCOURAGE GOVERNMENT EXTRAVAGANCE, DESTROY ITS CREDIT. PRODUCE FEAR WITH RISING PRICES, INFLATION AND GENERAL DISCONTENT. ENCOURAGE DISORDERS AND FOSTER A LENIENT ATTITUDE TOWARD DISORDERS. BY SPECIOUS ARGUMENT CAUSE THE BREAKDOWN OF THE OLD MORAL VIRTUES: HONESTY, SOBRIETY, SELF-RESTRAINT. CAUSE REGISTRATION OF FIREARMS (TO) LEAVE THE POPULATION DEFENSELESS.

China’s Influence in Canada Worse Than Expected

Information from the sources is evidence that Chinese consulates in Canada, or those linked to the regime in Beijing, have allegedly invested in tech companies with sensitive technology, donated a million dollars to Trudeau’s family foundation, made illegal cash transfers to Liberal Party campaigns, and volunteered Chinese nationals to work illegally for campaigns. The CCP has used gangs to intimidate Chinese dissidents, launder money, and traffic in illegal drugs, according to the sources, which include documentary evidence. The United States and Canada desperately need a national discussion and legal reforms to protect against obvious issues of CCP attempts to interfere in our elections and influence our leading politicians.

CRA Employees Shared Private Taxpayer Info in Facebook Chat: Federal Records

A number of Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) employees shared private taxpayer information last year in a Facebook Messenger chat group that was not approved for use by the agency, according to newly released federal records. CRA did not disclose how many employees were involved, the number of taxpayers whose confidential information was compromised, nor what kind of information the employees were using the chat group to discuss.

Canadian constitutional lawyer rips Calgary law banning drag queen story hour protests

Top constitutional lawyer John Carpay has blasted Calgary City Council for going to "war" against Canadians' freedoms by using bylaws to target people's ability to protest events at public facilities, including drag queen performance directed at children. "Freedom of expression is meaningless if citizens are only allowed to say what's approved by the government, or if expression is banished from public spaces."

Roxham Road migrants will be denied asylum seeker status

During a press conference Friday, the prime minister confirmed Canadian law enforcement will soon reject migrants at illegal crossings, including the road intersecting Quebec and New York State, which led 40,000 migrants into Canada last year. The announcement comes after a month of pressure on the Liberal party, including from Quebec Premier Francois Legault, and federal Conservative leader Pierre Poilievre.

RCMP search two camps, arrest 5 in connection to GasLink pipeline attack

The warrant was issued to investigate a report that a GasLink worker was swarmed by people wearing camouflage on Sunday, Mar. 26. The attackers reportedly fired flare guns, stole a chainsaw, and entered a work vehicle and poured liquid over it. RCMP media relations' statement said the swarming attack was another instance of violence in an apparent pattern against pipeline workers. Just over one year ago, unidentified individuals attacked a separate Coastal GasLink pipeline site with axes.

Liberals move to censor debate on internet censorship law, Bill C-11

On Thursday, the Liberal government struck down debate in the House of Commons on Bill C-11 to ram the legislation through parliament. Liberal MPs voted to support closing debate on amendments introduced by the Senate which would protect content posted online by individuals from government regulation

C3RF Update, 31 Mar 2023 – Constitutional crisis

This week's update chronicles the ascendent rise of a constitutional debate in Canada. It was easy to see it coming on the heels of a Public Order Emergency Commission Final Report that validated the invocation of martial law across the land to deal with bouncy-castle, Freedom Convoy 2022 protesters. Now that such draconian measures can be leveled upon the nation to address "what might happen" hypotheticals, what better time to discuss just how the Charter fits into all this and follow the lead of Canadian notables like Dr. Salim Mansur and the Honourable Brian Peckford as we do so?

Crowdfund our new Christian Documentary

Throughout history, Righteous Gentiles helped save Jews from terrible harm — including hiding Jews from Nazis during the Holocaust. But now it's Christians who are being persecuted. Even in Canada. Christian pastors in Canada are being arrested, prosecuted and jailed. First it was for keeping their churches open during the pandemic. Now it's for peacefully protesting against "drag queen story hour". "Church Under Fire: Canada's War on Christianity" will tell the story of the persecution of Christian Pastors in Justin Trudeau's Canada.

FREEDOM CONVOY

Trudeau Government Still Punishing and Discriminating Against the Canadian Trucking Industry

One year after the Freedom Convoy gained world recognition and admiration for standing up to a tyrannical prime minister who locked his own people up during the COVID-19 panic, we're learning that the bank accounts of over 200 trucking companies that employed individuals supportive of the Freedom Convoy were frozen based on an international RCMP blacklist—sent out worldwide. Truckers, some of whom can no longer feed their children, have been all but eradicated—all for having a different opinion from the PM, finance minister Freeland and most other members of the Liberal Party in Ottawa.

The Dictator and the Truckers: A Grim Sequel

The "elephant in the room" unmentioned in any of those 2,000 pages is that the Prime Minister had prompted the truckers' protest by maliciously imposing vaccination mandates he knew would throw them out of work if they failed to comply. There's no doubt the at-times boisterous protesters were an inconvenience to some locals. But how could these peacefully encamped truckers possibly be considered nation-threatening pariahs? That mattered not to aspiring Dictator Trudeau. In mid-February, he invoked the Emergencies Act.

COVID-19 UPDATES

Bill Gates Plots a Global Pandemic Prison State

Gates deploys his privileged place at the New York Times to agitate once again for a Global Health Emergency Corps, ensconced at the World Health Organization and managed by the same people who created the pandemic response this time around. In other words, it would be the core of the global government pushing more lockdowns for the world—lockdowns to wait for another round of vaccines.

The anti-Vietnam-war protests: engineered by the same Cabal that engineered the lockdowns, injections and mandates?

One thing I've learned a lot about over the past 3 years: there's a Cabal around, maybe even more than one Cabal. Yes, conspiracies abound. 9/11. The assassination of Kennedy. Watergate. Climate hysteria. And of course, the whole setup that happened over the past 3 years: lockdowns, treatments blocked, dangerous injections foisted on people, mandates, and US-VS-THEM.

THE GREAT RESET

The New World Disorder: There Are No Coincidences

Where they got the authority to decide our future is anyone's guess. They named it, or renamed it, The Great Reset. It involves the World Economic Forum (WEF), the public face of the New World Order. And then you have the Bilderberg Group, the hidden and probably the power behind the WEF. It also involves the International Monetary Fund, the United Nations, the Rockefeller Foundation, Prince... now King Charles, the Rothchild's, major international corporations like Bank of America, BlackRock, Goldman Sachs, Shell Oil, Chevron, and many others. Personalities you will hear most often are Klaus Schwab (WEF), George Soros, Bloomberg, John Kerry and Al Gore ('we're all going to die') and, of course, Bill Gates. Their gods are power, money, and technology, with no belief in a supreme being, except themselves.

The one-world beast system is roaring into reality, but is anyone listening?

This has to do with the fast-approaching beast system, which is marching us toward World War III and economic slavery through cashless payment systems, 24/7 biometric surveillance and even death. Yes, World War III and mRNA injections will provide the global culling of human populations that Bill Gates, Henry Kissinger, the Rockefellers and other powerful interests have been advocating for decades. With that background, let's get to the main point of this article: Cashless electronic payment systems that feed on your personal biometric data.

Let them eat bugs!

The World Economic Forum is now the self-designated world-saver — not only from climate change, but also from global starvation. The rationale employed is that climate change is paramount, agriculture is a major culprit, and cows and other livestock are really terrible, so the WEF will embrace insects (and technologies that create fake meat) to replace them. The U.N. and WEF say, "Let them eat bugs," but humanity says, "Where's the beef?" Persuading people to eat spiders or scorpions in order to stop oceans rising is the ultimate lipstick on a pig.

Central Bank Digital Currency (CBDC): The Weaponization of Money? WHO's Health Tyranny: Towards a Totalitarian World Government? No Way!

Two kinds of absolute controls are being prepared to implement The Great Reset, alias UN Agenda 2030. A potentially straitjacket and total control by programmable Central Bank Digital Currency (CBDC), and an all-oppressive health tyranny by WHO, overriding national Constitutional rights and national sovereignty as far as health measures are concerned.

The IRS Comes for Matt Taibbi

According to Taibbi, an IRS agent showed up at his home the very day that he was testifying before Congress on revelations about Twitter to the Select Subcommittee on the Weaponization of the Federal Government. At issue are his 2018 and 2021 tax returns — the former of which had already been electronically accepted, and the latter which shows the IRS owes Taibbi a good deal of money. This seems far too odd to be a coincidence.

Elon Musk is right to take on the blue-tick elites

The Twitterati is panicking. One of their most prized possessions – that little blue tick on Twitter that marks them out from the throng, that bestows upon them the title of reliability – is about to be taken away. Elon Musk is shaking up Twitter's verification system. On 1 April – but it's no April Fool's joke – Twitter will start seizing 'legacy' verification ticks. If you want to stay Twitter Blue, you'll have to pay for it: $11 a month. The blue-tick clique is in shock. Just like that, the evil billionaire is removing their most cherished social-media symbol, the tick next to their name that tells the world: 'I'm important. I'm special.' Now anyone can be blue, even riff-raff.

Spurred by the brutal murder of her friend and Wall Street Journal colleague Daniel Pearl by Islamic jihadists, Asra Nomani launched her campaign against Islamic extremism in 2002. Nomani heard imams at the mosque preach hatred toward non-believers and the West. In her new book, Woke Army: The Red-Green Alliance That is Destroying America's Freedom, Nomani exposes how Muslims radicals, led by the Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR), have forged a new alliance with leftist activists to create a "Woke Army" seeking to subvert American freedoms and destroy Israel.

It was a game; the child's father and his friend told her. They would visit a photographer. She would wear a beautiful white dress. But by the time the photo session ended, the little girl was married. It hadn't been a game at all. Her father's friend, 29-year-old Kadir Istekli, was her new husband. And she was only 6 years old. Now 24, that girl – known only by her initials, HKG – is pursuing a criminal case against both Istekli and her father, Yusef Ziya Gumusel, who had arranged the marriage. The trial resumes tomorrow.

'Wind Power Fails on Every Count': Oxford Scientist Explains the Math

After the decision to cut down on fossil fuels was made at the 2015 United Nations Climate Change Conference in Paris, the “instinctive reaction” around the world was to embrace renewables. “Today, modern technology is deployed to harvest these weak sources of energy. Vast ‘farms’ that monopolise the natural environment are built, to the detriment of other creatures. Developments are made regardless of the damage wrought. Hydro-electric schemes, enormous turbines and square miles of solar panels are constructed, despite being unreliable and ineffective; even unnecessary”.

The Persistent Horror of Congo’s Exploitation

The exploitation of the Congolese is an enormous travesty. Multinational corporations earn untold billions from selling cobalt, while the Congolese live in extreme poverty, suffering abuse, slavery, child labor, forced labor, debt bondage, human trafficking, and the poisoning of their soil and water. Children as young as six years work in mines to augment family income. Demand for cobalt is expected to grow 500% by 2050, and with the world fixated on electronic devices, the horrific injustice in Congo will continue.

The Murder of Innocence

The trans community believe that anybody who doesn't buy into their ideology are committing an act of violence against them. They will even make the charge of "genocide". When someone refers to a trans-person by their name given to them at birth, they accuse them of "dead-naming" the person. To them, not affirming someone's self-ascribed gender identity is akin to murdering them. So, if you are a murderer, if you promote genocide, then the people in the trans community would be within their rights to commit violence against you.

<https://juddgarrett.substack.com/p/the-murder-of-innocence>

Trans Terror Against Christians

It is quite possible that Hale was incited to violence: the Virginia chapter of the Trans Radical Activist Network on Jan. 30 called for a "Trans Day of Vengeance," involving a march in Washington, D.C. on April Fools Day to "Stop Trans Genocide." Lying to people and telling people they're the victims of genocide when they aren't may end up breeding a paranoia and rage that could all too easily boil over.

<https://www.frontpagemag.com/trans-terror-against-christians/>

The carefully planned Nashville shooting coincides with a so-called 'Trans Day of Vengeance'

While Democrats are busy blaming inanimate objects (i.e., guns) for the fact that an evil person murdered three children and three adults at a Christian school, conservatives are doing useful journalism and have discovered some interesting facts. First, the shooting took place even as so-called "transgender" organizations were pushing hard for a "Trans Day of Vengeance. Second, the killer targeted the school because it was a gun-free zone.

If the Mentally Ill "Mustn't Own Guns," What About "Trans" People?

The media hide Hale's MUSS (Made-up Sexual Status, aka "transgender") status because, if they didn't, you just might suspect the shooting could've been an anti-Christian hate crime. Second, it might occur to some people that maybe, just perhaps, society has more to fear from MUSS individuals than they do from society.

Transgenderism Doesn't Bring the Promised Happiness

The faulty survey from The Washington Post and its deadly misinformation feeds into the larger political narrative about how "gender affirmation" as a clinical approach to gender dysphoria will prevent suicidality. This is often a manipulation tactic by practitioners against concerned parents. Would you rather have a dead son or a living daughter? or vice versa. These people who have wedded themselves to this destructive ideology keep trying over and over again to deny what common sense, science, and religion have already concluded: Transgenderism isn't the answer to their problems.

Fox News host Mark Levin laid out his concerns about Russia and China's growing alliance with each other and China's growing presence worldwide. He highlighted Chinese President Xi Jinping's meeting with Russian President Vladimir Putin as a main cause of concern. He also shared how China's footprint in Latin America is growing and has already become the region's second-largest trade partner after the United States. He shared how China and Russia are pursuing infrastructure projects in Africa and how China continues to patrol the South China Sea. This is a watershed in the fight to defend our English girls from the pernicious evil of the 'Grooming Gangs' that infest almost every town and city across England. As the acting Solicitor in this case I acknowledge that this is a substantial victory but I am mindful of the 100,000 plus victims who have yet to see REAL justice.

However, now we have forged a path to justice by bringing and winning this action against a convicted groomer and rapist, Mr Ashgar Bostan, we are now at liberty to use what we have learned during the procedure to roll this 'Arm of Justice' campaign out further.

Britain's police need a lesson on free speech

The government's new code of practice on non-crime hate incidents is welcome. But there is little hope of it being carried out in practice when police officers are so ill-informed about our free-speech rights. Meanwhile, police forces in England and Wales are marinated in identity politics, which explains their willingness to record NCHIs against anyone guilty of offending certain identity groups. This amounts to effectively enforcing the blasphemy codes of both Muslim zealots and trans-rights activists, even for perfectly lawful speech. The police need proper training on free speech to rein in their increasingly Orwellian behaviour.

In this edition of Conversations That Matter with The New American's Alex Newman, Linda Goudsmit, author of multiple children's books on critical thinking and "reality-testing"; multiple books on education philosophy; and the upcoming book Space Is No Longer the Final Frontier, Reality Is, confirms how education in America is being weaponized to create generations of people unable to distinguish between objective reality (what really is) and subjective reality (feelings). She emphasizes that, in order to have a truly free society and constitutional republic, it is critically necessary to agree on what is objectively real.

Vivek Ramaswamy's extraordinary discussion with Jordan Peterson

Jordan Peterson has made a name for himself by analyzing in accessible terms the spiritual and ideological emptiness that underlie so many of America's and Americans' ills. It turns out that Vivek Ramaswamy is aware of these problems and is basing his perhaps quixotic presidential campaign on leading Americans out of this ideological wilderness into a strong recognition of what America means. He believes (as I do) that without this foundation, there is nothing any politician can do to reverse America's decline. To watch Peterson and Ramaswamy discuss these issues is a rare treat and it offers something of vital importance to America's survival.
